About Heidi McLaughlin & Heart Connection

Through her ministry, Heart Connection, Heidi McLaughlin embraces women with love, compassion, bible teaching and prayer; and inspires them to grow more beautiful from the inside-out.

One of Heidi's greatest thrills is to watch a woman emerge in freedom and radiate with joy when they discover and unleash the power of God's love and purpose for their lives. Her dynamic, life-changing messages, whether written or spoken, draw women into a place of intimate connection with God and each other.

It is not unusual to find Heidi sitting over a cup of freshly brewed coffee with a friend or mentoring a younger woman, and connecting eyes and hearts through intimacy and laughter.

Heidi is married to Jack, a Pastor at Trinity Baptist Church in Kelowna, BC. She is a mom and step-mom of five children and grandmother of nine.

Writing

Heidi loves to write. Her candid stories are sometimes humorous, sometimes heart wrenching, but always full of profound truths about God, relationships, and human nature. Heidi's writing resonates deeply in women's hearts.
